Meeting Notes - July 8th, 2009submitted by Ron Blank

Dave Perry started out his new year as President of our Club on a fuzzy note. To wit: mic problems and our saxophonist was notably absent. Yes, we know when Dave sings: he holds the final note at the ends of all lines. But even with Karin's help, they could not replace our absent musician. Ron Medd improved our lot with his inspiring invocation: "Lord, we thank You for the food we are about to consume and for the continuous fulfilment of our Rotary fellowship and friendship."

Henri Van Am introduced a non-Rotarian guest, Ron Plante. Ron recently arrived from Holland and was given a hearty welcome. Bob Wall's Rotary Minute was about "In Your Hands", this year's RI Theme. His granddaughter is on a Rotary Exchange visit to Denmark. He said "It is amazing how Rotary can change the world, one youth at a time." His granddaughter was a picky eater, unwilling to try new foods. Very quickly, she realized the Danes eat fish for breakfast, and that was the only choice. When parents Donna (Rotary Nanaimo Member) and Robert came to visit, they were introduced to all kinds of new and "exotic" Danish foods. Bob believes that younger members will be our lifeblood. His goal is to bring younger members into Daybreak. Anyone else willing to take up his challenge?

Bill Brendon was allotted four minutes by our President to discuss the upcoming Daybreak Speakeasy Texas Hold'em Poker Tournament: titled "Dog Days of Summer. The Tournament will be held on Saturday 25 July, beginning at 6:00 PM, at Nanaimo Centre Stage, 25 Victoria Road, in our City's newest Arts and Performance Centre. Bill exhorted the members to prospect and get commitments from players. He suggested phone, follow-up, commitment and ticket numbers. Bill's training on sales technique was several minutes over his allotted time. Sgt-at-Arms Don made note and later collected the requisite fine.

President Dave presented the new "Fellowship" and "Fundraising" forms that are to be used to ensure a smooth transition from ideas to reality and finally for historical review.

Kris Rongve thanked those who came, and assisted in the successful installation of Dave as our New Pres. Past Pres Ron echoed her comments and thanked Kris for the send-off and for Dave for taking the helm. Kris received a hearty round of applause, thanking her for her successful efforts.

Past Assistant District Governor Brian Kirkhope was given the enviable task of presenting our Club's winner of Rotarian of the Year. This year's winner went above and beyond the expectations of any Rotarian. From developing our Fundraising forms, chairing the Annual Fireside Chats, to developing and running our Daybreak Speakeasy Texas Hold'em Tournaments. Bill Brendon epitomized what makes Rotary work. Congratulations Bill!!!

Sergeant at Arms Don Bonner followed. He allowed the Past Pres Ron to show his invectives for the past year. Ron Medd was congratulated on his succinct and short invocation. Howcome he had to pay a fine? Sgt Don commented that President Dave should speak up, was he afraid of waking the dead? (Don doesn't fine Presidents) (?How come PP Ron got hit so often?) Donna A payed a fine (actually shoulda been Nelson) for having trouble with email addresses (hm dorack@shaw) and she was also chastised for improper battery storage. Happy dollars filled out our morning.

A Toast to Rotary ended Dave Perry's first kick at the cat, before the 8 AM bell.
