Meeting Notes - June 19th

notes by Ron Blank photos by Ron Blank

Well, well, well! This is finally my last time taking notes. And this is President Denise Larson's second to last time in charge of our podium. Sorry, but will have to miss that one.

Rod Mont was on deck with his sax and Bob Wall sonorous voice provided the Invocation. Ron did the Intro of Guests and Leanna Plug was sharp as a tack and knew their table guests name: Visitors today included Navjit Sangha, a recent Accounting Grad from VIU and 3rd year student Clayton Cameron. Both are also contact persons for sponsorship opportunities at the VI Leadership Conference on 25-26 October at VIU. (sponsorship.vilc@gmail.com)

Clayton Cameron of VIU came back for another meeting...

Pres. Denise invited us to help Nanaimo North Rotarians with the Beer Garden at the Dragon Boat Festival from 5 to 7 July. Opportunities: Friday 6-9, Saturday 12-6 or 6-11, Sunday 12-6. Seems like great fun for people watchers! Contact Neil (who has already left....)

Our donations to Nanaimo Hospital Foundation has exceeded $3,380 and they will be putting Day-break's name on their Tree of Life in the lobby behind the Starbucks.

Pres. also noted that we Rotarians should scent be free as "that is the scentable thing to do."

Jeff Boegel shared that Mid Island Abilities & Independent Living Society will partner with the Welcome Wagon at VIEX this August 17-19. He offered to promote our bookmarks. (Note their website, and promotional pamphlets show our logo & name)

Dawne Anderson, wearing her Salvation Army hat thanked us for our participation last weekend. Bob Fenty tallied over $4,000 and 500 pounds (225Kg) in donations. Great Job! Their Golf Tourney will be held at Cottonwood Golf Course this Tuesday 25th. In September, they are also planning 125 Years of the Army in Nanaimo and will hold a dinner with date to be determined.

Ev Mudryk and her team of dedicated walkers have now crossed Canada from Sin Jahns to Nanaimo.

Anna Jones stood and thanked us graciously for selecting her as our Rotarian of the Year. She would have spoken at our Installation "but felt more comfy talking in front of her peeps." She said our involvement with kids, and especially P.A.R.T.Y. is what convinced her that we were the Club. Thanks, Anna.

Randall Taylor did 50/50 and Daryl Knievel went home $55 richer and with wine for Mandy. WHOO HOO!

Pres D also thanked us for her "Year as President Gift" a silver soup ladle. (Was it engraved?)

Brian Kirkhope pitched cooking for the swim meet on the Saturday of Randall spoke on getting more club members involved with Guatemala. Ev suggested their group "walk to Guatemala." Patrick & Ron are discussing sustainability projects for the area and will schedule a meeting for interested parties soon. The portable X-Ray equipment has been bought. Dr John said they also need the x-ray protective aprons. The Chemainus Club has also volunteered money to help refurbish the homes of those in need. Dates for 2014 trip have yet to be finalized.

Sergeant Denise Davidson was in fine fettle this morning. Surprisingly, I got fined for my fundraising idea of growing stuff on Don & Bev's farm.
