Meeting Notes - June 24th, notes by Ron Blank, photos by Donna Allen

Herewith the last day as our glorious leader: President Don Bonner assumed the position.... at the podium .. then clanged the bell, again then again until the rabble finally reacted with quiet. Rod Mont was summoned to herald the end.

Don at the podium for the last time this term ...

Nathan Thornton was perusing the 'Rotarian' for ideas for a Rotary Moment. Ever vigilant Nathan shared some details of an issue's contents and discovered that Rotarians are on the cutting edge of fashion. To wit: therein advertized an article of "pure class" sure to impress your friends: 'The Walking Stick!' So being vigilant and wanting to quote the price of this fashion item, I delved into the July issue. I did see "How to outsmart a millionaire" on the back cover and found 'gravity defyers' on the inside. No stick! So it looks like the stick was in a previous issue. I'll have to be satisfied that Nathan has the details right, though I would like to know the price....

Rod Mont has the votes and the winner of 2014-2015 Rotarian of the Year for Rotary Daybreak is "Drum Roll" Sanjivan Mahara. With his research trip and subsequent fundraising efforts for Nepal and for his dedicated commitment to the "Catch a Smile" school dental programme makes him a worthy recipient indeed. Congratulations, San!

As this was a business meeting, the various committee structure and roles of the Executive were discussed. Fundraising:

- Swing into Spring will go again next year in April
- Jeff Boegel discussed the bi-annual poker tourney that shares funds with Mid-Island Ability Society and they need 80 players to make a decent profit,
- Brian Kirkhope chairs Oktoberfest for Friday 23 Oct and the Rheinlander Band will play from 8-11 with R&R playing 'til 1AM,
- Bingo continues to be a major fundraiser and we annually receive $16.5K from BC Gaming,
- Annual Xmas Auction chaired by Donna Allen raised $2.5K for food banks,
- Shredding for Polio chaired by Patrick raised +$ 2K this year and
- Golf for Nanaimo Youth also raised over $14K under the tutelage on Neil Sorsdahl.

I snuck out early to engage in pasture pool. Looks like the 50/50 wasn't won as I didn't receive a phone call. Therefore, it's a wrap.
