NOTICES & NEWS

1st Annual Oktoberfest Big Hit!!!...

Daybreak Rotary's initial Oktoberfest event proved to be a winner, with approximately 300 participants attending through the course of the evening. The venue worked great, the beer flowed liberally and a lot of smiling faces filled the hall. If this first event was any indication, Oktoberfest may be the popular event the club has been looking for. Final numbers to come from the committee shortly...

Daybreak Members Invited!!!...

Rotary Minute

Patrick Maguire advised that Friday is World Polio Day and the event is being live streamed @ 3:30 pm. Africa has been Polio Free for 16 years. To be considered Polio free a region has to have no incidences of Polio for three full years. We are getting close to beating Polio but Pakistan has had sixty cases of Polio in 2015. In 1988 there were 300,000 cases of Polio worldwide. In 2015 there have only been 70 cases, but we need to finish the job. The Gates foundation matches every dollar that Rotary raises. Donate today.

Business Meeting

Brian and Scott gave us an update on the preparations for the Oktoberfest scheduled for this Friday Night. Note: The event proved to be a huge success with nearly 300 in attendance. Everyone had a great time other than some portapotty issues, we made some money and everyone got home safely. Congratulations Brian and Scott for putting together a great first year event!!!!!!

Ron Blank has agreed to be the new secretary

Neil advised that the Fireside chats will be scheduled for January and February on his return from South Africa and that he is looking for club members to host the various meetings.

Eileen confirmed that there will be no club meeting on Nov 11/15 and December 30/15.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

None reported.

50/50 Draw

None

Sgt @ Arms

Kris Rongve levied some behavior adjusting fines and then happy bucks were tossed in. Robb Mowbray is acting in the production of The Three Musketeers playing at the Bailey Theatre Oct 15 through 31. The scribe announced that Smythe Ratcliffe is merging accounting practices with Joyce Smith effective Nov 1/15.

Dave Thompson finally gets his winnings!!!

We then recited the Four Way Test and off we went...

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!
