Fireside Chats..

My fellow Rotarians

As I prepare for next year's rotary year I am required to put together our goals for the club. As part of this process our club has in the past conducted fireside chats where every member can voice their concerns and desires. Fireside chats are as we say in the military a class A function where all members are required to attend. I have scheduled 5 fireside chats in the next 3 weeks as follows:

Tuesday January 26th, Graham Calder host, 1361 Discover Ave (max 8 attendees)

Wednesday January 27th, Bill Brendon host, 2405 Divot Drive

Thursday January 28th, Rod Mont host, 510 St Andrews St

Tuesday February 2nd, Neil Sorsdahl host, 6404 Lasalle Rd

Thursday Feb 4th, Nathan Thornton host, 102 Linette Place

I will be providing signup sheets on Wednesday at the club meeting, but if you are not attending please advise by email (goldendivot@shaw.ca) which event you will be attending. Remember this is your opportunity to have input into our future activities so please plan on attending at least one of the chats. These events also count as makeups and you can attend more than one if there is space.

I would like to thank those members who have volunteered to host the fireside chats. Your support makes my task so much easier.

YIR,

Neil

Meeting Notes - Jan 13th, 2016 submitted by San Mahara, photos by Donna Allen

Guests today were Mark Busby and Kix Citton from Nanaimo Brain Injury Society. They were the speakers of the day, too. Our Rotary exchange student Daniel from Columbia was also in today, as were Daryl Stech, Nicholas Dane, Debbie Narver from Downtown Rotary and Derek Rickwood from North Rotary club.

Ron Blank mentioned about the gaming fund of $7000, allocated equally to Loaves & Fishes Society and Nanaimo Hospital Foundation to purchase CT scan.

Our speakers today, Kix and Mark spoke about Nanaimo Brain Injury Society. They made it fun by asking written trivia quizzes about brain and concussion. There is no visible sign for concussion and rest is the only known way to get recovered. Children and youth take longer to get recovered as compared to adults. Yes! wear helmets to reduce risk, but helmets cannot stop concussion from happening in a hard impact.

Donna Allen mentioned that we have extra $10,000 to be given away. She suggested to donate it to NCRS to help resettle Syrian refugees. The amount to be decided later by the club. A notice of motion will go out.

Derek Rickwood presented $280, which was collected through the Hike for Nepal.

Ev Boegh mentioned that our club's anniversary dinner will be on February 24 at Tap house restaurant from 5-8 PM.

Graham Calder requested members to donate household items to Nanaimo Women's Center, located at 150 Wallace.

Finally, the four way test was recited and the meeting was adjourned.

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!
