Meeting Notes - February 3, 2016 submitted by San Matara, photos by Donna Allen

President Eileen Tatton opened the meeting, while Terry Rogers gave an invocation.

Guest - Leo Cosma, the treasurer of Mid Island Abilities and Independent Living Society came in to accept a cheque.

Ron Blank is back from his Guatemala trip. He shared some inside experience with club. He said people are very friendly and they have a great sense of community.

It was a special club meeting. Brian Kirkhope discussed some pending issues regarding club finances and a need for "one-on-one job specific training" for new members. He mentioned that there is a one week notice period before we vote on any motion to approve funding for any project. Members voted "yes" to keep the rule as it is. There was some discussion as how to attain and process a gaming fund as there is some specific rules related to its execution.

The Club will organize a training session for new members for their specific role in club committees.

Doug Lum mentioned that he is doing a 'reno' project at the "Womens Resource Center" as a part of his VI Leadership program. Ron Blank reiterated that the concept is in line with the work he did in Guatemala for local women.

Denise Davidson was lucky to cut the cards for 50/50, but could not pull the right one.

Graham Calder is off to India for an exotic trip. All the best, Graham!

At the end, happy bucks and fines were collected and the meeting was adjourned after reciting four way test.
