Guests

Barbara Robinson guest speaker, Daniel Valdiri exchange student, Daryoush Firouzli, former member possibly returning to the club.

Rotary Minute

Randall Taylor relived the very successful 20th Anniversary event held last Wednesday at the Tap house Restaurant. Randall acknowledged the great work of Ev and her team including Robb, Nelson, Donna, Rod, Denise, Janet and Ron. Ev suggested that we host such an event every year.

Guest Speaker Barbara Robinson

Barbara moved from Red Deer in 2011 and joined NUKO (Nanaimo Unique Kids Organization) NUKO was formed in 2005 by a group of parents who came together to assist their children who faced neuro-developmental challenges. NUKO, a not-for profit organization, was founded to provide additional support for their children who were struggling in the existing school environment.

Barbara is the staff supervisor and head of fundraising for NUKO.

Nuko operates a learning centre that employs professional staff to provide academic support and skill building for school aged children. The centre runs Mon-Fri September through June. In the summer they operate Day Camps.

In addition, NUKO also runs an Early Intervention Program for children under six years of age on the Autism Spectrum.

Barbara advised that they are located in at Longwood Station just below the Thrifty's store.

Rotary can help by making a monetary contribution to help fund their Summer Program.

Eileen read a thank you letter from the Hospital Foundation for our continued monetary and volunteering support for the P.A.R.T.Y. program.

Ev advised that we are considering a fundraiser in September to raise money for Nepal

Birthday

Happy Birthday sung for Brian K.

Draw 50/50

No winner although Eileen did win a sleeve of golf balls.

And on that note we then recited the 4 way test.
