Meeting Notes - Nov 9/2016 submitted by Nick Dunne, photos by Donna Allen

Our meeting kicked off with extra energy as our president Neil donned his military garb in celebration of our upcoming Remembrance Day. Thank you, Neil, for your reading of In Flanders Fields.

Just a couple reminders:

- Wednesday the 16th is the Red Cross Luncheon.
- Please feel welcome to come enjoy the 50/50 clippers fund raisers. It is great fun and a night out.
- The Guatemala trip was approved for international funding, speak to Patrick to sign up for adventure.

Our old friend Daryl Stech with Pres Neil dressed in uniform for Remembrance Day

Our speaker was Renato Anacleto, who spoke about his experience in the rotary youth exchange.

He was a participant in the rotary youth exchange from Brazil to Comox. The experience turned him from a shy youth into a confident young man. This was due to the Rotarian Mentors he had during the first months of his exchange program.

Due to the impact of his mentors, he was able to bring Rotarian values back to Brazil, joining his local Roteract and even meeting his wife at Rotary.

As such, we must remember as a club that we can add a lot of value to a youth's experience, if we spend the time.

...and Pres Neil with our guest speaker.

Denise missed the 50/50 drawing the Jack of Diamonds.

The foundation draw was won by Ev.

We said our four way test and went on with our week.
