Nathan advised that he needs a Club Service chair for his term next year as club president. Don Bonner has info on the responsibilities of this position. Tom Carroll is the DG Elect for next year and his focus is growing membership especially for younger individuals. Nathan is looking for input to take to PETS in February.

Donna advised that 72 have signed up for our Xmas Auction to be held at the Old City Quarter Wednesday Dec 7/16 @ 6 pm. There will be no meeting that morning. If you would like more tickets for this event email Donna. Donna is looking for quality silent auction items to ensure we meet the $4000 fundraising goal.

Neil advised that the updated mentoring list is on our website.

Guest Speakers VIU Nursing

Fourteen 3rd year Nursing students completed a practicum in three locations in Mexico last school year. They worked with a NPO engaged in various training programs as well as lending micro loans designed to battle poverty issues. Presentations were made by the nursing students at High Schools discussing youth alcohol and substance abuse as well as sexual health. They also met with many women's groups and discussed the need for affordable daycare and the programs setup to provide this for student as well as working mothers. They advised that the trip to Mexico was a great learning experience and life changing for all participants. The legacy of this practicum included:

- Donation of teaching supplies
- Continuing relationships
- Ensuring future nursing student visits to Mexico
- Continuing fundraising for various Mexican initiatives

50/50 Draw

Bonnie could not pull the Jack of Diamonds so the pot of $156 continues to grow.
