Meeting Notes - Apr. 12/17 submitted by Robb Mowbray, photos by ???

Perhaps the meeting opened with Rod Mont leading us in O Canada. For sure the national anthem was sung. Then it's likely that Terry Rogers provided the Invocation. After which, Dave Perry probably asked for visiting Rotarians and Guests so they could be introduced. That led to the inevitable assigning of tables for breakfast by Sgt-at-Arms Dave Thompson.

Following the delicious breakfast, consisting of bacon, sausage, garlic scrambled eggs, fried potatoes maybe pancakes, fruit, yogurt and a couple gallons of coffee, meeting attendees enjoyed a Rotary Minute from Patrick Maguire, assuming he was there.

Then a lovely presentation was likely made by Sarah Kirkhope and other RYLA students, our guest speakers for the day. This is, of course, assuming they also showed up.

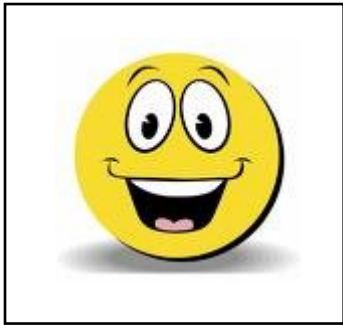

There was probably a few other Announcements made...well, maybe. Then Bonnie Murrell executed the 50-50 draw...or I expect so, since she was schedule to do so. Then Dave Thompson should have called for fines and happy bucks.

Lastly, the 4-way test would have been recited by all in attendance and then members went on their merry way...

...assuming a meeting was held.
