HAVE A GREAT WEEK!

Raised $3,167 – still cheques coming in (Donna took a photo)
Funds allocation – group decides who is going to get the clubs funds. Requests come from a number of different organizations. They have $2,500 to give out per year

Octoberfest

50/50 from our local hockey team, lots of fun

Catch a Smile – going to elementary schools with VI students to teach children why taking care of your teeth is fun.

According to “Mr. Chewy” Donna and San are the Tooth Fairy – but don’t tell anyone

Book Boxes we have 3 boxes out there – we collect them and we raise about $30,000. Every Rotarian might consider giving 2 books per year. Our club (we think) raises more than any other club. There is a prize for the club that gives the most books. We must be the club that donates the most.

Christmas Auction will on Dec 6th – Old City Station at 6:00pm. No meeting that morning but that night will be busy, so be sure to come. Funds go to Loaves and Fishes

We collect shampoo bottles that they share with people in need. Save your bottles Patrick is the one to contact regarding this

Jeff does the Poker Night – very successful this year

50/50 Winner:

Nelson Allen – “very small pot this morning but you might get more than you paid”, according to Bonnie. Sorry Nelson you didn’t win the pot today so the “growing’ begins again!

Sg at Arms: Denise.

Ron got a fine for being the one that talked the most, last night – Wow what a surprise that he talked a lot! :)

Lots of fines today – well done Denise!

Lots of Happy and Sad dollars

Wayne had a sad dollar he is going south for the winter, this is his last meeting in Nanaimo until March – no actually, he’s pretty happy about leaving

Sher was only half happy – she had 50 cents to give the pot today. Oh Sher!

Nathan’s happy dollar was for ending the meeting on time!

Adjournment: 8:00am

Well done, Nathan.

Great meeting, have a great day Rotarians.
