Meeting Notes - Feb 28th/2018 submitted by Terry Rogers, photos by Donna Allen

At the helm, Dave Perry.

Rotary Minute

Randall advised that in other rotary meetings he has attended while on vacation, the president will ask a club member to do invocation without any pre-warning. In addition, fines were significantly higher than the loonies and toonies coveted in our meetings. In particular, a Hawaiian club was handing out fines of $1,000 US, so cut out the whining.

Ken Hammer advised the club that Brent Butt is performing at the Port theatre April 6. This is a CDC fundraiser and tickets are $79. In addition, Ken distributed raffle tickets for purchase to support the CDC as well.

Classification Talk - Ed Wittenberg

Ed moved from Argentina to Canada when he was five years old. He worked in Vancouver for 27 years in the auto industry. He just recently started his own business, providing handyman services for relatively small home projects.

Ed's wife is Peruvian and he loves visiting Peru with its very rich history.

At home, only Spanish is spoken with his wife and his eight-year-old son Dominik. Ed has brought Dominik to a previous rotary meeting. Ed's hobbies include fishing and hiking.

Announcements

Sher advised that they have a couple spaces available for the upcoming Sands funeral home tour hosted by Dave Perry. After the tour, the plan is to attend a pub for drinks and appies. Other fellowship events being considered:

- games nite at Mosaic in April
- bowling nite

50/50

Patrick advised that there is $220 in the pot, although, unfortunately (for Doug Pearson), Doug could not cut the winning card.

Sergeant-at-Arms

Graham solicited happy bucks and Ev happily donated a toonie, to gain the floor, so she could update us on her PETS experience last weekend....not only amazing, but also exhausting.

On that note, we recited the Four Way Test and scattered to our further adventures.
