Meeting Notes - May 2, 2018 submitted by Randall Taylor, photos by Donna Allen

Ev Boegh led this week's meeting, opening with 'O Canada' accompanied by Rod Mont, followed by invocation. Ev managed to settle the raucous members, so that guests and visiting Rotarians could be introduced. We were delighted to have our own Nathan Thornton return from Calgary for a visit. Exchange students Koko and Bea were also in attendance. Our guests were Brenda Krastel, Vice president of the Board of Leadership Vancouver Island (LVI) and Russ Burke, Chair of the Board of LVI; who would be the speakers for this morning's meeting. Sergeant at Arms, Graham then assigned table order and breakfast began.

Bill Brendon provided a Rotary Moment asking, "Why do you choose Rotary?" Bill offered that our club mandate is to support youth, but this can be changed. New projects can be started such that Rotary becomes what we make of it.

Announcements:

Ev announced that Youth Protection training will be held on June 9th. Our club should be training as many members as is possible, as we have given ourselves a "youth" mandate. Ev also circulated a list of committees and members so that we can add or adjust the committees to which we are assigned.

Terry Rogers spoke about the upcoming golf tournament on May 25th. The tournament will be held at the Nanaimo Golf and Country Club in a "9 and dine" format. This is very popular as the tournament is almost at full participation. Please contact Terry if you would still like to play. Also, golfers should bring a bottle of wine (not homemade) for the prize table. Silent auction items are still required. And, if you don't golf, you can still come for the dinner - $40.00 per person.

Patrick offered time to discuss his upcoming pilgrimage along the Camino de Santiago in Spain with any members who would like to know more about this famous trail.

Daryl announced that the club has sold 180 hanging flower baskets.

Donna, Kris and Nelson are working through a review of the club constitution and bylaws; more info to follow.

Brenda Krastel and Russ Burke from Leadership Vancouver Island provided a presentation about the LVI organization. Russ has been involved since 2005; Brenda since she graduated from the program and is now "paying it forward". Our club sponsors a participant in the LVI program each year. LVI training is with a purpose of leading self, leading others, leading the community. The organization is driven by volunteers both delivering content of the training and comprising the Board of Directors.

The program starts with a weekend retreat, followed by one day per month of training for the group, during the year. Each group designs and produces a community project to be completed by June of the participant's year. Group projects allow the participants to practice what they learn through LVI. Recent projects have included "little libraries", the indigenous gardens in Lantzville and a video production for development of a "not for profit society".

LVI training is accredited with Vancouver Island University.

Brenda offered the benefit of her training in her work with the City of Nanaimo and that the program effects graduates in every part of their lives. She talked about the project "Tool Box for Change"; designed to get books focused on indigenous culture into the business community. A local artist supported this project by creating five handmade "bent wood" boxes to carry the books. The boxes became a lending library available through the Aboriginal Centre.

Draws and Final Announcements:

50/50; it was Wayne Peddie's chance to find the Queen of Hearts; but no luck.

Donna Allen won the Foundation draw (following vision assistance to read the ticket numbers).

Sergeant at Arms Graham was short on fines to allow time for happy bucks.

We then recited the Four Way Test and said our goodbyes.
