Meeting Notes - May 16, 2018 submitted by Janice Perrino, photos by w/a

Chair: Dave Perry
Innovation: Ron Blank
Visiting Rotarians: Sher Holubowich (Editor's Note: ???...)
Guests: Tamie Myles, Bea Pilla
Sgt at Arms: Denise Davidson
Rotary Moment: Rod Fay, any assembly, of Rotary is a Rotary minute. He talked about the District meeting in Tacoma and his chess game with Doug Pearson. A great conference, everyone out to attend. I think Doug won the chess game.

Reports:

San Mahara, talking about the trek he is involved in...he needs more participants, but people are signing up, including our own Robb Mowbray. Terry talked about the golf tournament – next Friday, May 25th...it is a nine and dine. We need golfers!! We need auction items!! – please bring them forward.

Dave Perry got called to “Mother Nature”, so a special Rotarian Dave Thompson stepped in to take his place.

It is Rod Mont’s birthday. We sang for him - badly.

Dave Perry talked about the Nanaimo & District Hospital Foundation donor recognition, Sheila will attend.

Ron Blank talked about Patrick Maguire who is making the Pilgrimage for Polio. It starts on May 23 – please make a pledge.

Daryl talked about the flower baskets and how he delivered them last week – some stories need to be kept quiet 😊

Several anniversaries – congratulations and don’t forget if your date.

Neil Sorsdahl is sending out party invitations for his home party in July.

Doug Lum asked who brought in wine for the tournament. Anyone who didn’t bring wine can do so next week!

Rod Mont talked about the Art Gallery and their cheque sent. Also... The Rotarian of the Year – Rod Mont gave us a notice of who not to vote for because they weren’t eligible. Please fill out your ballot and hand them back to Rod.

Speaker: Rod Mont and Daryl Knievel introduced Tamie Myles, Tillicum Friendship Centre, Rod presented a cheque for $400 to help their programs. Tillicum Friendship Centre is the best kept secret. 50 programs in three new buildings. Lots of children’s programs. They have a huge mortgage and they are not eligible for federal funding. Their biggest concern is about children – aboriginal youth suffer more than any other group. The trauma that children see is some of the worst in the country. Aboriginal groups suffer the most right across Canada. We are working hard to bring back our Aboriginal cultural to all of the local aboriginal families.

Winner: Bill Brendon drew his own ticket, but no luck on the Queen of Hearts – so come out next week. One of these days there will be a winner. It might be you!

Sg at Arms: Denise Davidson, Lots of fines, again, some stories need to be kept quiet. Lots of happy and sad dollars. Especially for Tamie as the guest speaker.

Adjournment: 8:00am
 Great meeting, have a great day Rotarians.

1. Is it the TRUTH?
