Denise L's Rotary Minute

Rotary Minute

Denise Larson informed us that, from the start, Rotary has been a "first name" kind of organization. Rotarians do not address each other by their professional designations, although in Asia apparently, Rotarians are given humorous nicknames quite often connected to the business they may be involved in. For example, Doug Lum now only answers to the name "Concrete".

Doug Lum is coordinating accommodation for club members attending DLTA in Victoria, May 9-11. Each club member needs to first register for the Assembly on the Rotary 5020 website. Currently, seven club members have indicated they will be attending. The club is subsidizing the costs of the attending members.

Ev indicated there will be an Area 4 event at the Rotary Fieldhouse April 11/19. In addition, Area 4 will be entering a boat in the Silly Boat CDC Fundraiser scheduled for July of this year. More information to follow. As well, Area 4 has committed to put a booth at the Earth Day event scheduled at the John Barsby Community School, April 27/19. Ev will be looking for volunteers to staff the booth.

Next week, we will be collectively completing the Youth Protection online training for the club. If you have not already completed this training, please ensure you attend the meeting.

Ken Hammer advised the club of the upcoming CDC fundraiser on Apr 5/19 at the Port Theatre. It is called "Comedy for a Cause", starring the comedian Steve Patterson. In addition, Ken distributed raffle tickets for another CDC fundraiser. Tickets cost $20 and first prize is 2 tickets anywhere in WestJet's world.

Classification Talk Rod Mont

Ev introduced Rod Mont and advised that he brought her into the club as a charter member in 1995. Rod was born in Edmonton and moved to Victoria in grade 7. Rod has had a passion for music all his life and advised that he could read music before English. Rod attended UVic and majored in Music, but realized that studying Music fulltime reduced his enjoyment of actually playing music. Rod transferred to different faculties and learning institutions over the next few years, eventually receiving a Bachelor of General Studies from SFU. Rod wrote the LSAT and applied to various Law Schools and moved, with his new wife, to Edmonton to attend the University of Alberta Law School. Rod graduated in 1989 and moved to Leduc to article.

Rod was introduced to Rotary in 1991, when he joined the Rotary Club of Nisku-Leduc. But Rod wanted to return to the Island and, in 1993, the family moved to Nanaimo, where Rod jokes he has practiced law to fund his passion for music. Rod's law practice is predominantly corporate, real estate and wills and estates.

Rod brought all his musical instruments, including clarinet (regular and bass), tenor alto soprano and baritone saxophone, and trumpet. Rod gave us a little toot on each one to educate the masses. Rod was a member of the Lantzville Rotary Club and instrumental, no pun intended, in the chartering of our club, acting as our first President.

Rod married Jill, who is also very involved in the local musical scene, in 2016. Rod has three adult children.

50/50 Draw Patrick could not cut the Seven of Hearts, so the pot grows.

Sgt @ Arms Denise Davidson

Darryl was fined for fessing up to a CRC tardiness issue, and then happy bucks were solicited. We then recited the Four Way Test
