Meeting Notes - February 15th

notes by Ron Blank, no photos this week

San Mahara was gleefully taking our money at the door, Michael Leduc and Doug Lum greeted. (Ever tried to hug a bear?) Comedian Darryl Shaw also liked our money. He did the 50/50.

This being the third Wednesday in February, President Bill Brendon presided, Rod Mont accompanied and we got off to a great start.

Guests this morning: none. From there, my notes went missing. Who did invocation? Eileen Tatton?

I remember Neil Sorsdahl Sergeanting at Armings, as we ate 2nd to last.

After repast, some notes revealed that Randall Taylor said our Swing into Spring was on Saturday March 24th. He & Patrick Maguire have come up with a unique idea. Nanaimo North members will trade duties during this event, in exchange for us doing their labour at their Putt-Putt Event on 31 March. That way, Club members can enjoy their respective events, and entertain their guests. Patrick continues to solicit Silent Auction Items and specifically asks that we find items from non-members.

Our Golf-fore-Nanaimo Youth Tourney, honcho'd by Neil, has found a better date and will take place Friday 8th of June, starting at 1:00 PM at Cottonwood Golf Course. (and not conflict with Lantzville Rotary Tourney) The Committee has had one meeting and Nanaimo Youth Services, Child Development Centre & Boys & Girls Club are enthusiastically on-side.

Denise Larson announced her Installation as our President will be at 5:00 PM on Saturday 1 June, at Cottonwood Golf Course, and Club Pro Winston Michel has offered golfers preferential pricing if anyone wishes to play golf before the party. (I like it!)

Neil will be down south for two months and Chris Everett will take over the duties of Club Secretary. Any Rotary business should still be directed to secretary@daybreakrotary.ca and Chris will receive and disseminate.

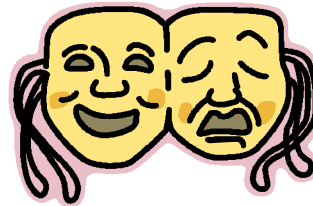

District Leadership Training Academy (DLTA) is set for 31 March-1April in Victoria at Pan Pacific Hotel. Registration Fees will be paid by our Club. All Executive are expected to attend and they will receive valuable training in their respective positions. From Opening Ceremonies on Saturday at 11:15, until after the fifth session on Sunday, you will get to know more about running our Club and get to meet a great bunch of enthusiastic Rotarians. Closing Ceremonies done by 12:30 on Sunday. Go to our District website: <http://www.clubrunner.ca/Portal/Home.aspx?accountid=50092> and click on Events, District Assembly for details.

Denise Larson shared that many of the recommendations from Fireside Chats have already been enacted in our Club. (She too is going down south and will fly from Santa Barbara to Seattle for President Elects Training Seminars (PETS))

And, that's the end of my memories. In line with the Four Way Test, "That's the truth!"
