Meeting Notes - Feb 14th/2018 submitted by Bill Hardy, photos by Donna Allen

Dave Perry got everyone's attention in his valentine's attire of a pink dress shirt with a red hat and matching red suspenders. Looking Good.

Everyone was perfect with the new lyrics of O Canada to start off the morning.

Ron Blank started us off with our visiting Rotarians and guests of Rotarians

Visiting rotarians – Dave Wiley from Calgary

Guests of Rotarians - Daryl introduced our exchange student Peter Bartok from Hungary. Ken introduced our guest speaker Holly Bright.

Daryl being sergeant of arms did a fantastic job of assigning tables for breakfast.

Announcements

Rod Fay was trying to confirm a date to bring a person on to join the club, March 21st to be the date. Brian advised that week and next week is spring break, so stay tuned.

Ev asked for a motion to donate $7500 US to school project in Napal, Rod seconded so will be brought forward to the board. Watch for emails for fireside chats.

Ron introduced Carl Wood at his table as he forgot.

Doug mentioned Wellington School Jazz Band having a Jazz Night at Port Theatre, tickets $10, not certain on date so will bring more details to next meeting.

Rotary Minute (which our illustrious co-president Doug Lum forgot about) Terry Rogers – mentioned our golf tournament, new format (9 & dine), new location at Nanaimo Golf Club, start time 4:30pm, feel welcome to bring family and friends to dinner if they are not the golfing type.

Guest Speaker

Ken introduced our guest speaker, Holly Bright of Crimson Coast Dance with new GM Linda who moved over from Coquitlam. Holly moved to Nanaimo in 1992 and realized there was interest in dance so started up Crimson Coast Dance
