Meeting Notes - April 28th, 2021 by Terry Rogers, photos by Jodi Rogers

Presided by Rod Mont, filling in for Anna who is in tax season purgatory, which comes to and end this week.

Guests - Russ Burke and Craig Richardson from Leadership Vancouver Island

Invocation - Dawne Anderson

Announcements

Patrick advised that 15 organizations have signed up for our 25 for 25 event. Our goal is 25, which should be reached shortly. The committee is looking for club members to liaise with each organization. Many hands went up and a list is being maintained. Patrick also advised that we are still encouraging members to purchase local restaurant $25 gift certificates and forward them to Sher to be used to both support our local restaurants during Covid and provide prizes for the 25 for 25. If you wish, you can send $25 to Sher and she will purchase a restaurant certificate on your behalf.

50/50 bills will be going out this week for the last three months.

Dawne Anderson advises that the Salvation Army Blueberry, Dog Treats and Panago Gift Certificate fundraisers continue. They are also looking for volunteers for their thrift stores and other operations.

Janice Krall said that our invitation to the 25 in 25 was found in the Hospital foundation's spam folder so we should follow up by phone with those organizations who have yet to respond. They will be signing up this week.

Janice also advises that the club committee structure has been completed and she will be providing a draft shortly.

Guest Speakers Russ Burke and Craig Richardson

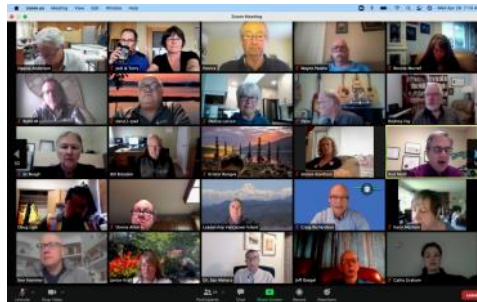

Russ is former president of the Nanaimo Chamber of Commerce and Craig was Nanaimo's fire chief until his retirement last year. Leadership Vancouver Island is in its eighteenth year, have 300 grads and completed 100 community projects. The next intake year starts this September beginning with a three-day retreat. Each year 18 to 25 students participate and are assigned to smaller groups to work with a community partner on a project. VU grants 6 credits to any student completing the Leadership Vancouver Island program. Alumni include our very own Doug Lum and Janice Krall.

Craig commented on the pivot required to keep the program functioning in the Covid era. Craig advised that they wish to partner with our club using their 25 in 25 club donation to fund the year of a student in their program. They are looking for our club to put forward possible candidates.

50/50 Bonnie Murrell - Denise Larson won!

Sergeant-at-Arms - Daryl Knievel says we were all good, so he was looking for happy bucks. Jeff Boegel pledged $25 to thank all the Rotarians that have reached out to him during his medical challenges. Daryl threw in $5 to remind us of the zoom Happy hour every Friday @ 5:30pm, just use the zoom link on our website. Karin Mattern tossed in $25 for missing a couple meetings. Cathy Graham contributed a happy five bucks and then fined herself twenty bucks for not being prepared for her Rotary Moment. Janice Krall pledged $25 for the great work of Russ, Craig and Leadership Vancouver Island.

On that note in all the things we do, think and say, we recited the Four Way Rotary Test.
