Growing Opportunities...

Many of us in Rotary Daybreak have given time to pack the fresh produce bags at Nanaimo Foodshare's "Good Food Box" program. We'll yesterday (Saturday) Ev, Brad, Don, Sheila and myself had the opportunity to see where a bunch of this food is produced. We are humbled to see the product of the vision of Craig and Jen (and team) of Cline Farm and Five Acre Farm (we were at Cline Farm). Thanks to Paul Manly for the invite. About 20 Rotarians from Nanaimo came and helped, planting transplants, fence repair, and greenhouse work. I highly recommend you follow this amazing team on their Facebook page, as these people are working hard to preserve these parcels of land for future sustainable food production for generations to come. Here is a link to an article about Cline Farm.

Yours in Rotary,

Jill Mont

Meeting Notes – June 15th, 2022 by Robb Mowbray, photos by Jodi Rogers

Janice called the meeting to order at 7 a.m. followed by Rod Mont with O Canada.

Invocation: Dawne Anderson

Introduction of Guests: There were lots! Darlington brought his son, Brian & daughter, Claire; Jason Bradley, Nanaimo and District 5020 Youth Exchange Chair; Bailey, Jasmine & Olive, our outgoing Youth Exchange students; and Calvin Davis of the Clippers org.

Sgt-at-Arms Wayne assigned tables for breakfast (which was really good!). He warned us that breakfast was ordered for 29, while 35 were attending, so don't get carried away overfilling your plate.

Rod intro'd the Youth Exchange students including Bailey from NDSS, who is headed to Copenhagen, Denmark; Jasmine, who is going to Brussels, Belgium; and Olive from Dover Bay, as she's finally on her way to Norway after at least two previous Covid cancelations. Jason Bradley mentioned the incoming students are coming from Switzerland, France and Finland, plus the BBQ fundraiser in September.

Graham Calder, our incoming Pres and Clippers 50-50 hero, presented a cheque to Clippers rep, Calvin Davis, who announced that the proceeds ( $19,633.25) would be going to NC Junior Hockey.

Announcements:

Sher is celebrating her birthday. She's officially a senior citizen.
Ken & Brenda Hammer are celebrating their anniversary.

50-50: Olive drew the winning number, which was held by Dave Thompson!

Sgt-at-Arms: Wayne said we were too well behaved to fine (well, ...) and just called for Happy Bucks of which there were lots.

We 4-Wayed and toasted Rotary and were on our way
