Meeting Notes – Feb. 1st, 2023 by Kris Rongve, photos by n/a

Rod M. did Oh Canada.

Terry G. did the Inspiration.

Sher H. did Introductions and the guests who were invited were Anne McIntyre from Oak Bay Rotary and Rob Mosley – a guest.

Dave T. did the Rotary Minute. Turns out he is scared of bears and cougars, but not so much lions and cheetahs and elephants and other creatures. He had an amazing safari trip and during the trip saw three announcement/Rotary signs.

Cathy and Scott received their name badges – so now they are really officially members we can pick on. Ehrm. What did I say? Be friends with. Yeah. Friends....

Guest Speaker: Anne McIntyre with Soap for Hope was our guest speaker. They provide shampoo in new bottles to about 400 organizations. They also provide linens to those in need evacuation centers (stained linens go to the SPCA or are sent for rags). They have been on their own for 3 years. The mission statement: Dignity through Hygiene. Their main customers are high schoolers, seniors, and families. Seniors are the hardest to help as they do not want charity. They have provided linens to refugees such as those from the Ukraine. Their work is labour intensive and repetitive. They have Ace Couriers and Diamond Delivery as their shipping partners. They also work with Helicopters without Borders to get product to remote communities. If you know an organization who would be able to use their product, get them in touch.

Announcements:

- Bonnie M: pay attention to her email about the clean up and science thing (this is my interpretation – not her words) and Taste of Africa is March 31, 2023
- Ev B: pay attention to CNOY (closer to her words....)
- Kris R: Beer & Burger, February 9th at Old City Station Pub. Need numbers over the weekend, including chicken/beef/veggie. Tickets $30 with a silent auction.

Bill B. did 50/50. Terry G. won $40 and then gave it to Anne McIntyre.

Denise D. was Sgt at Arms and, appropriately enough, fined Sher for using her crabby voice at Kris when she tried to give her a microphone.... Sher rebutted by saying it was NOT CRABBY but paid anyway. Ken H was fined for needing to be forced into the introduction of Anne McIntyre (yeesh, a long time member, a past president and a current ADG. What chance do us ordinary members have of getting it right if he can't....)

We did the thing. Toasted. And left.
