Meeting Notes – July 31, 2024, by Scott Manson, photos by Cathy Manson

Dave T chaired meeting as President Daryl was camping.

Leslie D. did the Inspiration. She talked about hosting 79 students through her Dragon Boat Team. She told them the story of the Bra Tree and other stories about Breast Cancer.

Denise D. asked for guests, and guests of Rotarians, and there were NONE! I think that is a first.

Bonnie M. did the Rotary Moment. Naomi is in Copenhagen, otherwise she would have done it. Bonnie talked about the outbreak of Polio in Gaza. The World Health Organization has sent 1 million vaccines there. Rotary has been involved for 35 years in a project to eradicate Polio worldwide, and is very close to their goal. Please donate to Polio Plus. Duane was Sgt. @ Arms and assigned tables.

Dave T. passed around a picture of a girl kayaking. She was able to do this because of donations such as the old from our club to "Take A Hike".

Nelson A. presented a Paul Harris Award (+2!) to Jodi R. Way to go Jodi!!

Jill M. then asked for our help. She has talked with Paul Manly about our club helping the people who stay at the Unitarian shelter to do a trash pickup. The date will be in September. There is a trash talkin' happening on Saturday, August 10th at 9am on Highland Boulevard.

Jeff B. talked about the recent Poker Tournament. A big SHOUT OUT to all of the volunteers who helped: Bonnie, Jodi, Jill, San, Bill and many more! Jeff will have numbers for next week's meeting.

Rod informed us that Pat Knight who has been a guest recently, wants to join our club! His application has been approved by the Board. Any members with an objection to him joining should advise an executive member before next Wednesday.

Ken H. informed us that Kathy G. has applied for a grant of $3500 through World Community Service Organization.

Graham C. has 2 spots available for his trip to South Africa through the Rotary Friendship Exchange. The trip is from October 5-18. They are visiting 4 different cities and will visit Kruger National Park for 2 nights! Please let Graham know ASAP if you want to go.

Scott M. then announced that the Rotary Boat WON the Silly Boat Regatta and thanked everyone for their help.

Caitlin celebrates her anniversary!

Denise L. won the 50/50!

Duane collected only Happy Bucks. Another great meeting!
