Weekly Wake-up

November 22: Club Assembly

November 29: Guest Speaker: Debbie Truman, Nanaimo

Notice of Motion

Nov. 15: Moved by Darryl Knievel and seconded by Kevin McNeill that: Nanaimo Daybreak Rotary pay $2,000 to fund the building of picnic tables, supporting cement pads and raised flower beds, with such funding to be supplemented (if possible) by a District Simplified Grant in the amount of $1,000. Don Bonner is to apply for the grant.

December 6: Christmas Auction

Remember to mark this date in your calendar. Please take a minutes and gather up all those special items. This is a great time to recycle those "unique" things we have in our closets. The auction is lots of fun and raises more than a few dollars for the cause.

Rod Mont—Live in Concert

For an inexpensive chance to see Rod Mont playing jazz rather than O Canada, check out Malaspina's end of semester jazz concert on Wednesday, November 29 at 7:30 in Building 310, Malaspina University-College. Tickets are $3 for general admission and $2 for students & seniors. The concert will feature Malaspina's jazz band, Malaspina's saxophone quartet and the NMA band in which Rod plays lead alto sax.

Daybreak Grey Cup Party a tremendous Success!

Thanks to the hard work of Jim McIvor and his incredible team, the Sunday's second annual Daybreak Grey Cup Party was a huge success. 87+ enthusiastic sports fans (and some enthusiastic "not sports fans") enjoyed the game on 2 big screens and were treated to a wonderful steak dinner with all the trimmings. Cudos to all the techies who made sure everything worked—and worked well. Thank you.

The meal was catered by Bruce Mede who did the butchering and carving of the meet from into 8 oz steaks. Thanks to Bruce's skill as a meat cutter, the Club was able to cut down significantly on the cost of the meal without sacrificing quality. Well done Bruce.

No catered event would be complete without the hard work of all those who planned the meal, bought the fixing's and worked in the kitchen. Mounds of potatoes were scrubbed, dozens of rolls were cut, pounds of romaine hearts were chopped and hundreds of dishes were washed. PLUS we had a lot of fun in the process.

Madam Nicole and Babushka Lee gave insightful card readings to the curious (or should I say generously gullible). Lots of fun.

We had a good silent auction and Dave Thompson raised additional money for the cause through a live auction.

Funds raised will go towards the support of the NDSS Football Team. Jim will provide us with a tally on how well we did financially. However, it was clear that in terms of fun and frivolity—the day was ONE BIG SUCCESS. Thank you all.

I'll have photos for you next week thanks to Dave Perry.

Oh ya—in case you hadn't heard—WE WON!

Respectfully Submitted,
Your Editor
