June 6 Meeting NotesSubmitted by Rod Mont

Karin Mattern, for her Rotary Minute, discussed EclubOne, the on-line source of Rotary information which counts as a credit for attendance. Based upon the honour system, after reading articles for 30 minutes, Rotarians can request a make-up confirmation. Rod Mont announced that voting for Rotarian of the Year will take place at the June 13th meeting. Rod's daughter, Anna Mont, discussed the Run for the Cure which is taking place June 15 and 16 and asked for sponsors. Chris Everett reminded everyone that the Pennies from Heaven campaign will end at the end of June. President Kris presented Don Bonner with a special pin recognizing Don as a triple Paul Harris Fellow. President Kris thanked Diane Turner for loaning the Sands limo for use at the District Conference. Dave Perry was also recognized for driving the limo - apparently it was not all work and no play as Dave drove to a lot of shopping places. Daryl Stech was looking and received for a show of support towards a hands on project for Habitat for Humanity. Francine Frisson advised that she will be working with Ken Hammer next year on the program and they are looking for suggestions for speakers and programs. Wendi Ferrero presented Donna Allen with $10 she collected for bottle returns. Guest speakers were Chip and Karen Ross who gave a presentation about their impressions of India. Chip is a member of Strathcona Sunrise Rotary

Lee Mason, for her Rotary Minute, paid tribute to Rotarians' efforts on behalf of our community. Rod Mont passed out ballots for Rotarian of the Year - the award will be presented at the installation. Rod encouraged members to start looking for silent auction items for Summer Song which will take place this year on August 25, 2007. Silent auction items can be given to Jo-Ann Harding. Christine McAuley encouraged everyone to come out to the party for the exchange students at 6:30 at the Roost. Christine also advised us that it is very important to have someone step forward and volunteer to host one of our foreign students. Lynda Kazanowski attended the scholarship awards night on behalf of our club which was held at the Port Theatre. Kay Dusenbury was there too to present the Dennis Dusenbury Memorial Award from our club. Wendi announced that she is finishing up the Roster - if anyone has corrections to make in it, advise her soon. Wendi also advised that the invoices for next year's dues (the Rotary year starts July 1st) have been given out and are now due. Wendi was also selling $25 tickets for the installation. Barry Sparkes of Lantzville Rotary advised us that the Rotary Clubs of Nanaimo were voted #1 for service clubs in the Nanaimo Bulletin's Best of City awards. Brian Kirkhope won a bottle of wine at the Nanaimo North Rotary installation and led a game of "heads and tails" to determine who would win the bottle. Our guest speakers were Ken Hammer and Bridgette Zohner who discussed the Malaspina-Ghana Project. This is a five year project which is partially funded by CIDA and focusses on poverty reduction. Ken and Bridgette traveled to Sunyani, Ghana and visited several smaller communities. The Regional District of Nanaimo is helping Ghana in the area of solid waste management which is a major problem there. With the money from our club, some roofing material and chairs were purchased for an orphanage.
