Meeting Notes - August 8th: no notes received...

My vacation...far, far away right here at home!

I apologize for no meeting notes and the late issue of the Weekly Wakeup for the August 8th meeting, but I was away on vacation and hadn't received the notes before leaving on Saturday, August 11th. I expected to be back in town on Monday, August 13th, but the lure of the islands was too compelling...

And you don't have to go far to be "incommunicado" around here. My family and I went all the way to the south side of Mudge Island (forms Dodds Narrows with Cedar at Cable Bay) to our friends waterfront summer home and cabins. It is a paradise right here at home. (Well, isn't our whole region a paradise?)

A short trip to the old Cedar boat ramp at the end of Barnes Road, dump the boat in the water and then a five minute ride across to Mudge and we were at our beachfront personal resort, compliments of my childhood buddy and his family.

Sitting on the deck, with deer standing ten feet away, calmly feeding, while we watched the seals, sea otters, eagles and herons, and boats of all shapes and sizes, as they paraded past our view. With no internet hook-up, no computer and no television, it didn't take long to relax and start to enjoy that laid back island life-style. The only thing to keep you awake at night was the chatter of the raccoons as they vied for shellfish down on the beach.

And we finally hit some good weather! After enjoying the August 1st long weekend on Mudge, our return last week included three of the hottest, sunniest days of the summer. As I sat on the "hot rocks" beside the beach in the late afternoon sun, sipping my martini, I could not help but smile, thinking people spend thousands of dollars to travel the world in search of paradise and we found it right here at home!
