Meeting Notes - July 16th

submitted by Cathy Robson

Visiting Rotarian- introduced by Jim McIvor. We welcomed Birgit Glashoff from District 2370 Nacka/Sweden near Stockholm. President Ron introduced Colleen from Vancouver Island University, She is doing research on "groups" and proceedings at meetings. She sat in to watch and listen to our Rotary interactions(Great choice for her to research)

Rotary Minute: Sheila Forrest commented on the July issue of the Rotarian regarding Colleen Spurway- Conflict Intervention, talked about Limited Knowledge program, world peace scholarship, Rotary will pay for Education, the information is on the internet. Went to Australia, they focus "on the job training" as people don't have authority on the job. It is important to treat all employees with Respect.

Ron Blank reported that guests John & Paul Watson from District 9450 were unable to attend. A banner was going to be presented. Our new banner was introduced with new logo "Make Dreams Real" by D.K Lee International president. Past President, Donna Allen was given last year's banner for her dedicated year as president.

Landtubbers- Ron Blank and Jeff Boegel working on getting people to purchase tubs. Encouraging business's to get involved as it is a good deal. $400.00 per spot on A channel at $450.00 a spot for the winner of the landtubbers scavenger hunt. They have two tubs at this point, Woodgrove administrators and Royal Bank.

Bill Brennen- Vice President: Cruise Ship- looking for schedules and people to man the tables to sell chocolates for when the ships come in.

Sheila Forrest- Club Administrator: Needing more people on the committee's- Dean Carto offered.

Denise Larson - Service Projects: The pathway is done. We have a commitment with the Travel Lodge; looking for a chair person. Don Bonner and Daryl Shaw and Dean Carto offered.

Don Bonner- Foundation report: President Ron Blank reminded that he WILL be participating in the Polar Bear swim this year. Polio Plus – will be doing a fundraiser in March. Rotary can now accept Credit Cards. Donations can be make online. Benefactors needed for the foundation $1000. Needing one person to bequest Society member $10,000.00 or more to foundation. Dean Carto was offered... :-)

Rod Mont- Memberships: Attendance for June was 87%. Looking for Chair for the Committee. Two parts: retaining memberships and adding 5-10% new members each year. Encourage retention-inclusion and making it fun and making follow up calls.

Donna Allen: asking about the cost of breakfast for 1st meetings. Will bring this to the executive to see if it is in the budget.

Dave Parry- President Elect: (P.R.) Asked to support the Mid Island Phone books as we have free advertising in it. Ads on Bus Benches for Nanaimo. The mold for the chocolates (Callebaut Chocolate) will be a Bastion and Rotary design. They will be sold for $10.00 each. We want to put a Rotary face into the Nanaimo Community. Donna Allen added sales of the chocolates will be directed to the Cruise Ships and to partnership with the Museum to set up tables. Opening will be the 24-26. Four clubs are involved (excluded is Oceanside). Aussies came and had a private tour of the Museum. Asking for requests for Rotary ideas.

Chris Everett announced: Aug 2nd. Market is open -Rotary has a display from 9-12. Also, Sept 24th President D.K. Lee will be in Victoria, if you want to attend , $75.00 per person.

50/50 Ticket Fund reached $1,640.00...no winner this week!...
