Daybreak Rotary's July 29 business meeting was graced by an influx of visitors from the Lantzville Rotary Club. The group presented the 'twisted club' Rotarian team trophy from Lantzville's spring golf tournament to the Daybreak team, headed by past-prez Ron Blank. The trophy goes to the 'least worst team' from a Rotary club. The tournament raised $6,000 for cancer research.

Lantzville Rotary's Barry Sparkes is about to award the Twisted Club trophy...

As the first business meeting of the new Rotary year, despite doldrums of summer, there was promise of action ahead.

Vice President Bill Brendon said he was continuing to work on the events template. He also reported on the second poker tournament, Dog Days of Summer, held the previous Saturday. Despite praise from players for the professionalism of the event, the number of participants still wasn't high enough – possibly because it was bathtub race weekend and there were many competing events. A third poker tournament is planned for this fall.

He will also be organizing fireside chats for this fall and will be seeking hosts.

Secretary Eileen Tatton is setting up her Internet and Printer connections, to get ready for the coming year.

Treasurer Cindy Bartlett distributed a proposed budget for 2009-2010. Highlights were:

Gaming Account Revenue:
 $16,500 in Bingo funds
 $1,200 from 50/50
 $2,500 from the Grey Cup Lottery

General Account Revenue:
 $10,000 from the Golf Tournament

FOUR WAY TEST

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

$3,000 from the Christmas Auction
 $5,000 from the Grey Cup Party
 $1,500 from a Polio fundraiser
 $1,000 from misc. sources

Club Operations (meals, Sgt. At Arms, dues) were expected to raise $9,900.
 Foundation was projected to receive $2,250.

Total revenues and expenses were anticipated at $32,650.

Reporting on club service, Rod Mont invited new members to become involved in the club. Anyone with a proposed event can submit one of the newly developed event proposal forms to President Dave or to Rod. There will also be regular fellowship meetings.

Moira Steele invited club members to submit their ideas for fellowship events. There will be a meeting in the coming week to discuss fellowship events for the year.

Speaking to membership, Jeff Bogel said the club has three new members pending. There will be a membership talk on August 12.

Denise Larsen announced continuing discussion with the City of Nanaimo for a proposed community service project.

Neil Sorsdahl said the fund allocation committee had held its first meeting and reviewed 15 requests which had come in over the past six months. Three requests were approved: $500 to the Island International Children's Festival, $500 to the Load the Lockers program; $500 to the Canwest Raise a Reader program. Four of the groups requesting funds have been invited to speak to the club.

...and we had to include a photo of Ken's shirt from Ghana!

Neil added that the club's spring golf tournament will be held next May at Cottonwood and will continue to support local youth groups: the Child Development Centre, the Boys and Girls Club, and Nanaimo Youth Services Association.

Patrick Maguire said he and Jim McIvor are organizing programs for the year and will be beating the bushes for guest speakers. Club members were invited to contact him with ideas. He thanked Ken Hammer and Francine Frisson for their work on the program over the past two years.

The student exchange program is still seeking host families.

For those who requested it, here are the words for the Banquet Earth Grace by Linnea Good, which opened the meeting:
Chapati, Chapati, Curry and Rice, Burrito, Taquito, Spaghetti and Spice
Dim Sum, Egg Foo Yung, Two all beef patties, special sauce on a bun
Hands across the table, hands across the sea, Sharing in the banquet of the Earth.
 Thanks
