NOTICES & NEWS

A Big Thankyou from Donna Allen!!!...

A big thank you to one and all who contributed to the auction and who bid and bought! We raised $1,442.00 from the auction and $157.36 from the Sargent-at-arms pot for a total of $1599.36. We have also collected many contributions of household items and gift cards for the 4 families. Francine will be sorting these out for the individual families and then, with the monies that we have raised, working to add some of the special wish list items.

There is still time to donate to the families. Take a look at the 4 profiles and see if there is something you can bring to our next meeting on Dec. 12th. That will still give a little time for Francine and her elves to complete the shopping. These items can be gently used or new. Gift cards for stores are also very good--perhaps Walmart.

Once again thanks to all of you who made the auction a festive and productive morning.

YIR

Donna

Meeting Notes - December 5th

notes by Ron Blank, photos by Donna Allen

With President Denise recuperating from knee surgery, Pres-Elect Chris Everett got to exercise his lungs. The bell needed to be rung to quieten this boisterous crew.

Francine Frisson's neighbour & friend Barb Parker joined us, Kris Rongve re-intro'd Leanne Plug. Sher Holubowich brought the boisterous pair of Peter Lindquist and Cam Wilson. Husbands Dave Ferrero & Brian Anderson accompanied, as well as Beverly Bonner. The entire Kirkhope family of Brian, Louise, Sarah and John also graced our meeting.

Invocation by Ron was given with blessings/thank-you's in several languages. Sgt Kris shepherded us to our repast.

Though our meeting's purpose was fundraising, the realities were that we also had fun. Peter jumped in and salaciously bid up and won the first goody basket with whoops from the wild west. Not to be out-done, Ron paid the price for the next. Don & Bev's Seabreeze Farm jams and jellies were a hit. (Will he pay for this shameless promo?)

Neil Sorsdahl and two friends are going to a Clippers hockey game. The odours from freshly baked bread wafted throughout the room and fetched a great price. Kris' "to die for" peanut brittle was sprinkled through several baskets and later found their way to my waistline.

Denise D's photo with her beloved canine was certainly worth something, and maybe the nappies too. Peter made sure Denise paid highly for this re-re-returning prize.

Ornerary says "How in hell am I going to explain this?" Someone obviously re-gifted the next "offering." The descriptors are difficult. They became more complicated with Auctioneer Brian's choice of words. Here goes anyway "be sure and bid on this prize so you can bring someone into your bedroom to sample your fogging tureen." San Mahara will have to explain how it worked!

Anti-penultimate (yup, that's a legal term) basket was quickly sold, then came the penultimate. Sadly this year, we did not have any "pickling beets" and they were missed. Auctioneers Dave Thompson and Brian Kirkhope always delight with their differing styles and were awesome.

We gotta thank Donna and Christine Craigie for their wrapping & presentation skills and Francine for coordinating the four families. Amanda Moore will be deal directly with the families.

Time being what it was, the monies collected by our Sergeant went to the families, as well. Net net was close to $1,600. Another great day in Rotary.

That being, we Four-Wayed outta there.
