Meeting Notes - March 20hnotes by San Mahara, photos by no photos this week

With Denise Larson waited patiently so Sanjivan Mahara could make a grand entrance and give us a happy invocation.

Guests this morning included Rotaract President Grace Kamyra and Suvan Mahara

Ronald's Rotary Moment managed to slaughter many foreign languages with his attempts at sharing different invocation endings. Thank-you!

Randall Taylor promoted our soon upon us Swing Into Spring. Decorators and Set-up crews will start at 1130'ish on Saturday. The event promises to be fun. You will hear some great music and voice and enjoy great appies.

Grace gave an update on the Rotaract Club and, similarly with us, the difficulty is always to get the word out on their Club. She promoted their Harambee Festival (Swahili for 'come together') in support of the World University Services of Canada (WUSC) sponsorship of refugee camp students in Canada. Over the past five years, they have supported six students. The event will be in the Nanaimo Ecumenical Centre on 27th of April.

Golf for Nanaimo Youth is on Friday 17th of May and Neil Sorsdahl promised great weather. Golf Cart Sponsors this year are Nanaimo Honda and Michael Mellenchuk. Other sponsors and golfers are needed to make this event successful.

The Pres focused discussion Rotarian of the Year and it's exclusion of past winners. Will the prize eventually be for the one NEVER to win? More later on that one.

Texas Hold'em Poker is on Saturday 13th of April at Nanoose Library at 7:00 PM. (Map on the web-site) The central location encourages participation from Parksville/Qualicum players.

Story Book Dads, with John Howard Society, has been funded and discussion was held about supplying books/tapes as well. No decision made.

Jeff shared that Mid Island Ability Society has received $20K from New Horizons to fund their programmes.

Our new 50/50 format produced a winner. Sher Holubowich takes home $67.50.

See you Monday night at the curling club for a couple hours of curling and friendship.

That being, we Four Wayed to our next adventure.

Have A Great Week!

2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
