Graham brings back a pennant ...

Rotary Minute: Graham talked about his trip to India and the make up he did. He visited the Bombay west club. There are 133 clubs in Mumbai. Club also wants to do a joint venture to help in Nepal. Bought a hand painted T-shirt to support a fundraiser. He also stated that, as a rotary member, he felt at home and welcome.

- Harry- Funds allocation: Have had a few requests: women's centre, children's choir.
- Board has approved a bursary for Chris Everett to VIU in his name for a music student. Christine has been advised of this.
- Don Bonner found another program for green houses less than $1,000 to build them.
- Notice of motion: Nanaimo travellers lodge Eden Gardens approved for $5,000.
- Heather's husband Rick will fill in for her for remainder of current year.
- New member transfer: Dave Perry, he was a former member and was also president in 2009-2010
- New club opening in Victoria. Terry will attend and give donation of $100
- Shelter box funds have been increased by $200 to $1,200
- Shelter box was done for Chris Everett as well
- Don did an update to the web site, golf tournament and shredding are on it. Web site to get better
- No consolidated list for committees, one will be done.
- Plan is to have every member signed up for a fundraiser
- Evelyn: PR committee: Radio ads have been broadcasting they talk about our history. They want to broadcast catch a smile as well as the golf tournament and shredding
- Island radio wants to partner with us on shredding, they will also have a broadcaster on site the day of streaming live
- Assessment will need to be done to see if the radio ads is money well spent.
- Ken Hammer thinks it already paid for itself as Island radio is partnering with us for the shredding
- Donna will work on a poster for the shredding event and will send it to Bev
- Golf tournament is soon, poster have been done; Sponsors needed for the golf tournament; eight volunteers needed to help and looking for as many hands as possible; 2 budgets have been done. With 60 players anticipated revenue will be $10,000 and with 120 players anticipated revenue will be $14,000; Letters to be sent to former prize givers and sponsors
- Ken H asked for a current update on the budget
- Ron to send a financial report

To end the meeting: Sargent at arms
 No too many fines today; Fined herself for not updating lists of duties; fined Ken for a poor introduction; fined Sher for playing with her phone; Happy bucks

Four way test.

...Ev talks about radio ads and PR.
