Meeting Notes - Jan 4, 2017 submitted by Randall Taylor, photos by Bill Brendon

'O Canada' was sung with enthusiasm despite the absence of the usual accompaniment. This followed by invocation.

Introduction of guest was only for Calum Mathews, representing Tourism Vancouver Island. Calum would be the guest speakers.

Graham Calder conduct a "table lottery" to set the order, and then breakfast began.

Darryl Shaw provided a Rotary Moment, which provided both education and humour. Darryl provided a comparison between the lives of Paul Harris and Oprah, (yes, that Oprah).

Announcements:

Graham needs volunteers to sell 50/50 tickets at Clippers hockey games. Volunteers get a bonus of watching a good hockey game, while you are there. Please contact Graham for game dates.

Patrick is looking for workers to assist with electoral office work in the upcoming provincial election. See Patrick if you would like to know more.

Guest speaker:

Ken Hammer introduced Callum Mathews who represents Vancouver Island Tourism. Calum presentation began with a video showing the value of tourism to the Island.

Island Tourism has been operating for over 50 years, primarily as a destination marketing organization. They now have included "destination development" in their work; getting communities to work together to develop tourist experiences. The work also involves removing impediments to the development of tourism.

Recent study shows that $1 of tourism marketing provides $76 of tourism activity. The primary demographics for Island tourism are people with an annual household income of seventy five thousand dollars or more and 45 years or age or older.

The Island has 3.8 million tourists annually, which produces revenue of $1.4 billion. Tourism supports development of a well-trained workforce and is the top employer of people who are between the ages of 15 to 25 years. First Nations and Cultural tourism is an area of "big growth". The experience for a tourist benefits from interaction with local residents. Calum encourages us to be a "Tourist Ambassador". He also encourages us to explore Vancouver Island.

50/50:

Karin Mattern had chance to find the Jack of diamonds – but no luck.

Fines and Happy Bucks were collected, many wishes for a Happy New Year, and then the Four Way Test was recited and we said our goodbyes.

Pres Neil with guest speaker, Calum Mathews.
