Foodshare Building Project!!!

Hello Everyone

The tentative date for the Foodshare Building sweat labour project is for Saturday, Sept 23, and Sunday, September 24. It may be that most of the project will be completed on Saturday.

Please RSVP your availability to me at dallen44@shaw.ca

Many , many thanks to those of you who are able to participate. This is a great community project.

Donna

As explained by Donna at last week's meeting, the task includes moving some furniture, sanding wood flooring and applying floor coating and painting.

Spoke with Paul Manley and he assured that floor coating is waterbase and therefore not full of volatile chemicals. He will also be supplying dust mask for sanding and all equipment.

Meeting Notes - Aug. 9th 2017 submitted by Nick Dunne, photos by Donna Allen

Nelson Allan delivered our rotary minute, asking us to remember the great causes that the foundation does, including access to public care, immunization and mobile clinics in the 3rd world.

Bonnie would like to know if there is any interest in new rotary shirts with the new logo.

Donna Allen is looking for more sweat labour to help Paul Manly and the Nanaimo Food-share with refurbishing some floors.

There was a notice of motion that the Aug 30 meeting be moved to the Aug 29 youth fundraiser beer and burger night instead.

Janice Perrino gave her Classification Talk.

She was born and raised in Calgary and her 1st job was working at her dad's sporting goods store. She entered the work force in the banking industry; however found adversity when trying to move into a management position. Janice moved to the Okanagan when her marriage did not work and worked multiple jobs to make ends meet.

Thankfully one of those jobs was raising money for a new hospice house in the community. This lit her passion for creating, maintaining and developing foundation. She has raised funds for the BC Cancer society in Kelowna and raised 40 million for the Penticton hospital.

Janice remarried and begin to get involved in politics as a council woman. She loved working on an effect council and was happy to get things done in the community.

She ran for mayor of Summerland and was elected twice. During her second term, she helped oversee the construction of the new hospital.

In 2016, she joined the Nanaimo Hospital Foundation and in the coming years might complete a university degree.
