Meeting Notes - Sept. 6/2017 submitted by Terry Rogers, photos by Donna Allen

Presided by Nathan Thornton

As usual we began our meeting led by Rod Mont on his golden saxophone singing O Canada.

Bonnie distributed a sheet for the Rotary shirts.

Graham distributed a signup sheet for the Clipper 50/50.

Jeff Boegel announced the Poker Tournament fundraiser for the Mid-Island Abilities & Independent Living Society scheduled for Saturday September 16/17 @ 2 pm. It will be held at the Harewood Legion Branch 10. Jeff acknowledged the generous sponsorship of Church Pickard and Kris Rongve. Both players and volunteers are need for the event.

Rotary Minute

Bill advised that five years ago he donated a kidney pursuant to the Kidney Donation Program. Bill provided an overview of the living donor program and advises that he remains active continuing to increase public awareness. Bill distributed a pledge sheet for the upcoming Kidney Walk fundraiser scheduled for late September.

New Members

Nelson Allen inducted Sheila Forrest, Ed Wittenburg and Jamie Black, and we all welcomed them to the club.

Classification Talk

Cemi Ver provided a very entertaining summary of his life. Cemi was born in Istanbul, Turkey. As a young adult, he served in the Turkish military and was stationed in Cyprus. Cemi came to Canada to get his Masters in Marketing at VIU. At VIU, he became very involved in Rotaract. After graduation, he completed an internship at Quality Foods, and was an Operations Manager at UPS. Cemi is currently working at Tilray, managing accounts and, apparently, he enjoys selling organic products.

50/50

Patrick advised the pot is $1931, but no winner for Doug. Wayne won the consolation prize of a bottle of wine.

Sergeant –at-Arms

Graham showed mercy and let happy bucks rule the day.

On that note we recited the Four Way Test.
