Guest Speaker Simon Rideout

Simon moved to Nanaimo in 2002 after obtaining a Psychology degree from UBC. Upon arriving in Nanaimo, Simon attended VIU and received his MBA. After graduating, Simon struggled finding steady employment and in 2012, he purchased a What's On franchise which originally originated in Comox. The What's On Digest is a calendar of events both digitally and in print form. In addition, through Simon Communications, Simon provides advertising on TV screens in medical clinic waiting rooms, as well as other locations. Simon provides limited free advertising to not for profit entities on all his platforms.

Doug Pearson introduced Jodi and Lauren Rogers to the meeting and advised that the Rogers clan are the first family membership in our district. Ken Hammer then proceeded with the formal induction.

50/50 Patrick Maguire

San could not find the Seven of Hearts cleverly allowing the pot to grow.

Sergeant-of-Arms Daryl Knievel

Happy Bucks were actively solicited.

And then we recited the 4-way test to conclude our meeting.
